

To Attend Guardsman's Funeral.

Captain John S. Cole, commandant of the fifth district Coast Guard, will head a contingent of officers in charge of stations in this district in attendance at the funeral of Boatswain Aaron Smith at the Wildwood station this afternoon. Boatswain Smith, who was in charge of the station detail at the Shriners convention, died in Providence hospital, Washington, Monday afternoon. Death was caused by a blood clot on the brain producing paralysis of the left side. The local detail will include Captain Cole, Officers Tilton, Downs, Horner and Bowen.
