

NEW LONDON MAN DROWNS.

Wildwood, N. J., May 21 — John Palmetti, 20, fireman on the coast guard steamer Pequot was drowned yesterday in the ocean near here. Palmetti and three other enlisted men were crossing the channel in a small boat when a wave upset it. All but Palmetti could swim. He was drowned before aid could reach him. His home was in New London. During the war he served overseas.

Clipped By:

annakris

Fri, Apr 27, 2018