

Bodies at sea

SOUTHWEST HARBOR, Maine—The Coast Guard said Monday it would investigate the deaths of two lighthouse attendants whose bodies were found at sea five miles from Mount Desert Island. A guard spokesman identified the pair as Boatswain's Mate 3.C. Neil Pichette, 24, of Shelbourne, Mass., and Fireman Ronald Paquette, 21, of Newmarket, N.H. Coast Guard Lt. (jg) Ernest Blanchard said an autopsy performed Monday showed the two men "drowned as a result of exposure." Blanchard said circumstances surrounding the deaths have not yet been determined.
