Freak Mishap Kills Coast Guardsman

CLEVELAND, June 2 (AP) — Conrad J. Anderson, a 24-year-old coast guardsman from Toledo, O., died in Marine hospital today of injuries received in a freak accident six miles out in Lake Erie last night.

Anderson, was standing on a buoy after fixing its light and preparing to board the buoy tender, Tupelo. A sudden 35-mile wind shoved the buoy against the ship, squeezing Anderson between the two.

He suffered a crushing chest blow and internal injuries. A boatswain's mate, second class, Anderson was married and had one child.
