

Coast Guardsman Shot On Deer Hunting Trip

Fayette, Maine, Nov. 11 (AP)—Daniel Bosley, 21, of Des Plaines, Ill., a Coast Guardsman assigned to the U.S.S. Yakutat, was fatally wounded today while deer hunting.

He died in a Lewiston hospital about three hours after being shot in the abdomen by another hunter. The Kensebec county sheriff's office said the second hunter's name was being withheld pending completion of an investigation.

The Yakutat, a weather observation ship, is based at Portland.

Bosley was reported hunting with three other Coast Guardsmen. His death marked Maine's tenth hunting fatality of the season.
